

ORTHODOX ACADEMIC SOCIETY

BY THE ANTIOCHIAN HOUSE OF STUDIES

2024 Summer Symposium

May 25th at 12 pm - 3:30 pm Eastern Time, via Zoom

Welcome

Moderator, OAS Coordinator Deacon Simeon Spencer

----- Opening Prayer -----

Introduction

AHOS President Fr. Michel Najim

AHOS Dean Fr. Fadi Rabbat

Presentations

Each presenter will have 15 minutes, followed by 10 minute Q&A.

Sr. Sherine Milad Ya'coub, MTS Student

The Sons and Daughters of the Covenant: Recalling and Confessing the Vows of the Mystery of Baptism.

Michael Witcoff, MPCC Student

Mormonism and the Orthodox Church: Ethical and Theological Approaches to Conversion and Evangelism

Fr. Cosmin Sicoe, PhD Student

Cremation – an Orthodox Christian Theological and Pastoral Perspective

ORTHODOX ACADEMIC SOCIETY

BY THE ANTIOCHIAN HOUSE OF STUDIES

Dr. Jerry (Luke) Bradley, MTS Student

The Application of Orthodox Psychotherapy in the Works of Hierotheos Vlachos to Palliative Care

Ahdy Rofaeil, Doctor of Ministry Program

Gender Dysphoria and Transgenderism from a Scientific Perspective

Dalia Tinawi, PhD

Deified by Providence

----- Closing Prayer -----

30 MINUTE STAY AND MINGLE

The Orthodox Academic Society (OAS) fosters and enhances an active academic theological community among AHOS students, faculty, alumni, and scholars at-large whose research and interests are aligned with the Orthodox Christian Tradition. OAS intends to offer Fall and Spring Symposia each year, and the presentations will be published in an annual journal.

Become a member of OAS

oas.ahos.edu

Become a student at AHOS

www.ahos.edu